Recognizing those who helped with the betterment of our community.

Listed with their accomplishments if known.

To update your listing send email to professorwesarnold@gmail.com

The above should be expected of every adult and taught to every child and made the human law for all.
If harmers were punished we could have a wonderful world.

Freedom of speech and media safeguards freedom.
Our Constitution and Universal Declaration of Human Rights gives us many Freedoms.
Where they censor speech, information and books they will take away your freedom.

FREEDOM ISN'T FREE, MANY DIED FOR YOURS. We veterans remind you to: Be vigilant and be prepared to fight threats to your freedom. There are many here who are secretly against our way of life. Remember 9-11, Boston massacre, Detroit bomber, Mslm terrorists who nearly caused hundreds of deaths of children and Warren workers in 2026. And over 49,000 Mslm terror attacks since 9-11 worldwide and killing nearly 200 in USA.

And there are the greedy 1% who have excessive wealth dodge taxes, and Corporations who don't pay a living wage. We now have the resources to provide good clothing, food, housing, medical care and education to all citizens..

Before the first entry we acknowledge that there are many Heroes and Volunteers who declined to have their names put in this history because they choose to do good work anonymously. I will call these our Anonymous Heroes. Several of these have put in hundreds of hours doing good work in our community. We give them our thanks and gratitude for their wonderful works.

Ra-Cosky Victor L. our most decorated Center Line Hero

Served the cause of Freedom for over twenty eight years in the United States Marine Corps. Entered Marines in 1966 out for retirement in 2004. Total service time 28 years 34 days. Ending rank Sgt Major. E-9. Infantry and Weapons. Was awarded many medals. He also volunteered at the VFW and Vietnam Veterans. He also headed three memorial teams which honored veterans at their funerals with military gun salute and presentation of memorial flags. He also did much other good works.

Obituary

Racosky, Victor L. – of Center Line, age 79, passed away Monday, August 25, 2025, at McLaren Oakland. Honoring his wishes, cremation will take place. Private services will be held at a later date, where Victor will receive full military honors.

Victor was born February 22, 1946, in Pontiac, Michigan to the late Andrew and Dorothy (Rutterbush) Racosky. A proud United States Marine, Victor embodied the values of honor and commitment throughout his life. He was especially passionate about contributing to his community, actively volunteering with the VFW, Marine Corps League, and the Macomb County Ritual Team. His willingness to lend a helping hand made him a beloved figure among family and friends, and his efforts in carpentry and mechanical work showcased his remarkable skill as a jack of all trades. Victor dedicated 26 wonderful years to his beloved wife, Shirley, creating a vibrant family life that centered on joy, support, and shared experiences. As the patriarch of the family, he was present at every event, cherishing his role as a loving father and a doting grandfather whose heart was filled with pride for each of his grandchildren. Family was everything to Victor, and he made it a priority to nurture those precious family ties.

Surviving are: Wife, Shirley Bastian; Children: Mathew Racosky, Paul Racosky, Jennifer Proffitt; Stepsons: Ronald (Laura) Bastian, Scott (Gemalyn) Bastian, Corey Bastian, and Jason Bastian; Grandchildren: Samantha, Megan, Tiffany, Devynn, Mercy, Kaydence, Matthew (Cel), Logan, Brian, Sarah, Megan, Michael, Rachel, Cassie, Alyson, Corey, Aaron, Coty, Austin.

He is preceded in passing by his son, Mark Shatrau; Sisters: Vickie Morse and Sharla Russell.

They have stolen at least five memorials including a memorial to all veterans and those who died in attacks on our country. (Such as Pearl Harbor and 9-11) More memorials are now missing. They do not own the memorials or the cemetery. This was done in secret without a vote of the membership or a public hearing. Nothing was found wrong with these memorials at a public meeting afterwords. This shows disrespect to our soldiers and those who died including 400 policemen and firemen. Rinke John One might think of John Rinke as a bridge between pioneer Warren and the present city complex, since his grandfather purchased their homesite at Masonic Avenue and Hoover Road in 1862 and it was where he was born and lived.

John grew up in a house built by his father on the site of his grandfather's log cabin of more than a century ago. The old homestead was also Mr Rinke's birthplace 43 years ago on June 5, 1884. He attended Warren district school and St Clements school in Center Line. Most of his life was spent in farming. When Mr Rinke's grandfather built his log shelter on Trombly in the early days of the Nineteenth Century, the crops were confined to a few acres of land between stumps. Timber wolves and wild life abounded to Mr Rinke, is on the threshold of a great development. The Warren Co operative business was run by John A Rinke manager and Anthony G Weigand secretary-treasurer. “Red” and “Tony” are also directors. Other officers and directors include Louis Busch, president, Ed J Schoenherr, vice president, Fred Schuster, Henry Halmich and Joseph C Murphy. The Warren Co operative was the most famous farmer related business in Warren for the time we had farmers. They sold feed, seed, coal, flour, fertilizer, gasoline, motor oils, farm implements, coffee, and stock and poultry tonics. This firm helped local farmers by keeping prices low. They engaged in co-operative buying and selling of farm and garden supplies, and its slogan is "We Try to Satisfy." The building was first owned by John Wilson. It was sold to A Van Dyke Church in 1911. Mr Wilson retained the flour mill. Mr church sols to the Warren farm Bureau Local which shortly re-organized as Warren Cooperative company. A warehouse addition was made in 1924 and a front office built, followed by another warehouse in 1926 and a covered shed. In 1927 a gasoline distributing station was installed. A coal car unloader was purchased. He was widely known as the head of the Warren Cooperative, a farm supply and mill originally built about 1889, and someone actively in education as he matured. Mr. Rinke was a member of the committee that represented the Agricultural Association of Warren when the mill was purchased in 1919. His interest in the village covered many civic events and organizations, and he was instrumental in helping the local banks reorganize when the depression impacted that small community severely. His interest in education covered service with a Board of Education of a local school for 15 years as it grew from a one-room building to two rooms. As a local farmer, he was involved with 4-H work and often judged animals at their events. Mr. Rinke is known best here by his work with the Warren Township Board of Trustees and the City of Warren Council, on which he served as it made the transition from Charter Township status to an incorporated municipality, which he served until 1959. In keeping with these activities, he also was elected to the Macomb County Board of Supervisors and appointed to the Road Commission. He died in 1980 at the age of 96 and his farm disappeared into a residential development. His life and accomplishments were marked with gratitude with the Warren Historical and Genealogical Society named him as one of its Honorees at a 2006 celebratory banquet. By Fred Gemmill Rinke, Frank The following narrative is one of the few surviving chapters of Pioneering in Warren Township by Anna Kluck. Pioneering in Warren Township as Frank Rinke Saw it. “Getting possession of a parcel of land in Warren township during the late 1800's was only the first step of a long and arduous task. All of this area was covered with forest, dense undergrowth and marshes. Trees had to be cut and the brush cleared away and ditches dug to drain off the swamp water. As the first settlers swung their axes into the first tree trunks, bush tailed squirrels scampered up nearby trees and from their lofty vantage point, peered curiously at the noisy invaders of their forest domain. Round eyed coon and timid rabbits stood on their hind legs at a distance and peeped warily through the brush. In the surrounding marshes frogs croaked continuously while clouds of whirring mosquitoes hovered above them. Birds of every hue and color sent their songs echoing through the forest. One after another the tall trees swayed, creaked painfully as they parted from their live giving roots and crashed to the earth. The branches were chopped off and made into cord wood. The trunk, if of good timber, would be taken to the mill to be cut into lumber. In the spring, when the ground was soft, half loads of logs were hauled as far as Beebe's toll gate, the entrance to the plank road in Warren. There the logs were unloaded and the settler went back after another half load of logs. Meanwhile, many stops had to be made to remove the sticky clay from the wagon wheels where it collected in huge amounts. On his return to the toll gate with the second half load, the settler piled the first half back on the wagon and began the long trip to Detroit by way of the Plank road, now known as Sherwood. It required good teamwork on the part of man and beast to make a successful trip.

Horses strained at their harnesses, sweating, foaming, panting, while their master encouraged, cajoled or cursed them, according to his temperament. The surrounding woods echoed with French, German and Irish epithets. The horses, being intelligent animals, were expected to understand. If they failed to respond, a slap of the rains across their sweating flanks always helped. Always there were the mosquitoes, buzzing about the ears of the drivers and the horses and man and beast winced at their sharp sting. It took six hours of this to reach the saw mill in Detroit. After the trees were cut and the brush cleared away, a still greater task remained: the removal of the stumps. Since the roots were deeply embedded and entwined in the earth, only the smaller roots were pulled out the first year. They were set aside and allowed to day. The next year they were piled about the larger stumps and set afire, thus burning out the large stump.

Meanwhile, the settler plowed between and around them, carrying with him an axe to cut the roots when the plow became embedded in them. An attempt was made to make a straight furrow by placing markers at each end of the field with which to line up. For the first few years corn was raised between the stumps and grew into tall healthy stalks such as is seldom, if ever seen today. Corn was planted because it could he harvested by hand. Grain was not sown until most of the stumps had been uprooted and destroyed. " (Anna Kluck Pioneering in Warren Township)

Rinke, George Member of the famous Rinke family. He ran an appliance store in the Rinke building for many years. He them went to work for the City of Warren. George married Edna DeLong in 1929.

Rinke, Joseph Was towns hip treasurer and used to go around the cjounty in horse and buggy collecting taxes his sons Norb and Ed used to also help. They carred a record book and a 32 cal revolver for protection.

Rinke, Joseph and Elizabeth Gill Rinke moved to Center line about 1905. they came from 13 and Schoenherr. He had operated a flower mill there for several years. Their children Norbert, Edgar, George and Marian became ancestors of today's Rinkes. Joseph liked to work with machinery. He operated steam thrashing machines and other equipment. Joseph opened a hardware store with Mike Smith. The store was located one bock North of Engleman on Van Dyke. They sold fertilizers, hard and soft coal, windmills, lighten rods, gas light supplies, plumbing supplies, heating supplies, hardware, top buggies, and Edison phonographs. He added a gasoline pump in front of his store in 1910. They strained the gas through a chamois to filter out the water and sold it one gallon at a time.. Sons Ed and Norbert sold gasoline. In 1917 Joseph opened an auto agency. He sold Buick and Oakland autos. We know they have sold Chevorlet cars for years. Chevorlet itself started in 1911. They built a new brick building in 1926. They started selling Cadillac in in 1931. In 1948 GM wanted the dealerships to change to exclusive dealerships. This led to each brother getting a separate delearship. Ed sold Chevorlet. Norbert sold Cadillac and Pontiac

Rocca, Pasquale, age 93 of Warren, died Saturday, February 15, 2014 surrounded by his loved ones at home. He was born on May 22, 1920 in Valdez, Colorado, son of the late Angelo and the late Raphaela (nee: Recchia) Rocca. A loving husband, father and grandfather, Pasquale lived a full and colorful life surrounded by a host of family and friends with whom he shared many warm & wonderful memories. He leaves a legacy that will be both revered and remembered with deep affection. He will be missed immensely and loved eternally. Pasquale was the beloved husband of Marie (nee: Tomaselli). Dearest father of Francis "Frank" Rocca, Michael Rocca, and John (Helen) Rocca. Loving grandfather of Rosalind (Evan Topor), Adam, the late Christina, Gabrielle, Isabella, Nina (Josh) Pier, Mikey, Danielle, Joey, Jacqueline, Aaron, Alex, and great-grandfather of Ryann. Dear brother to Carolina Visone. Another of Pasquale's unique and memorable traits involved his love of making wine. He may not have been donned the crown of Sommelier, but he could produce a damn good wine that would make your toes curl. It was mostly white wine from the Moscato grapes he had shipped in, but it was a white that packed a wallup! It wasn't a wine for commercial consumption, just merely a "family vintage" that was enjoyed by many friends as well. He was generous with his "liquid pleasure,"…but also quite protective of it when it came to his inquisitive (and thirsty) sons. Even with the spigots locked, little did he know of their ingenuity and wily ways. When it came to a taste of Dad's wine, they were all a bunch of McGuyver's! buyer Coming from parents of Italian descent, it was the state of Colorado that they chose to settle in upon emigrating to America,…and there that they welcomed their new son, Pasquale. Three years later, with homesickness beckoning, the family decided to return to their roots and relocated back to Italy. With Pasquale exiting his teen years just at the juncture of World War II, it was the Italian Army that would make the fateful call for him to join the fight and support his country. Ultimately, the question of just who he should be supporting became an issue, and a source of confusion for many. Though he was serving valiantly alongside his Italian patriots, the fact of his American citizenship just couldn't be ignored. But prior to all of this, his time served was not without its interesting highlights,…one of which involved a rather telling change for Pasquale. Possessing some natural talents in the kitchen, it was no surprise that part of his wartime responsibilities involved feeding the soldiers. On one fateful day, he prepared a meal that just happened to be the dinner a visiting General was to consume. After tasting some of Pasquale's cooking, the General became inquisitive as to who had created such a good meal. Upon learning it was Pasquale, the General immediately assigned him as his personal chef. No longer did Pasquale have to join his mates in the mess hall, he was now livin' like the Jefferson's,…"and we're movin' on up to the Big Time!" Dreams come in many different variations. But for Pasquale & Marie, theirs was in the form of providing tasty delights to the masses,…which meant bringing a new restaurant to their fair city. Hence, it was in 1964 that their dream became a reality when they opened Firenze's Restaurant on 10 Mile Road in Warren,…a staple of the city for 50 years, and a premiere place to enjoy the best Italian cuisine in town. And with Pasquale's cooking prowess, you couldn't go wrong,…or hungry! As for his personal, at-home prerogative, it was all about cooking "naturally." He didn't go for any of that processed food, and never ONCE had a fast-food hamburger. What he ate came from the work of his own hands,…and a little help from the garden. Following the war years, Pasquale would go on to work hard and diligently in a variety of fields to include bricklaying, pipe fitting, and various construction projects. Though he was building quite a life for himself, he was doing it alone,…until that special day in Pisa, Italy on February 11, 1950 when he shared the vows of Holy Matrimony with his beloved, Marie. It was then that the journey of building a home, raising a family, and fulfilling dreams took flight. And that "flight" would ultimately find them returning to the United States in search of that American Dream. Pasquale loved his gardens, both vegetable and floral. When it came to his tomatoes, beans, cucumbers, and peppers, there was never a lack for the juiciest and freshest vegetables around. As for his flowers, he nurtured them with the utmost in TLC and enjoyed creating a floral display that was both beautiful and stunning. In 2009, his efforts were so monumental that he was awarded that years prize from the Warren Beautification Committee. It was a very proud moment and recognition for this pillar of Warren.

When Pasquale wasn't working, there's no question that his favorite pastime was hunting. There was just something about escaping the concrete jungle for a little backwoods enjoyment that soothed his soul. No matter the game, Pasquale was quite adept and proficient with his guns, and the wildlife in his sights didn't have a chance. Whether pheasants, deer or rabbits, he hunted them all and even did all the skinning and prepping of his spoils. And this hunter didn't mess around with tents or a rustic cabin, either. He chose to incorporate a bit of comfort with his "home away from home" by purchasing a house in the quaint community of Applegate in the northern area of the thumb. It was there he created many wonderful memories with his children and grandchildren,…and taught many of them the finer points of shooting and hunting. To this day, those loved ones still enjoy the reflections of those hunting excursions,…and still hold fast to Pasquale's lessons.

ROWELL DOROTHY "Dottie" largely responsible for creating our Warren Veterans memorial

Rowell Dottie 2006 Warren Historical Society Award

Rowell, Alexandria CLHS 1995

Rowell, Dotty This wonderful woman was the wife of a veteran. I have not learned the story yet. But we know he died a few years before her. Then the city of Warren decided to create a veterans memorial. Big problem, it seemed that there were lots of medal of honor soldiers but practically no one to pay for them. Dotty decided to use her life savings to pay for all of the medal of honor bricks at Warren's Veterans Memorial. This was several thousand dollars. I happened to be taking fotos there one day and saw this woman . I was in a hurry so didn't spend much time with her but did snap her picture. I found out later what she had done. Then for a long time no one knew where she went. Turned out she died alone leaving no children. I am hoping someone can add more to this story. Need More Information
